After reading the statement below, please provide any final thoughts on the applicant regarding their suitability for participation in MYTA.

Millsaps Youth Theological Academy is for students who love learning and who desire to explore their faith creatively and intellectually alongside other Christians. The YTA curriculum will build on theology learned in Sunday School, confirmation, and church life. Students with all kinds of gifts, career goals, and extracurricular hobbies are welcome. Because the Academy will make space for students to engage a variety of social issues on which there are a variety of opinions, it is expected that students who come to YTA are open to being challenged and interested in listening deeply to the stories of their peers. Knowing this, do you believe this applicant is suited to participate in MYTA? Why or why not? We value your honest opinion!
